

Archaeology 2007

Application for the University of Illinois Field School in Archaeology

Anthropology 454 and 455*: "Digging Cahokia's Floodplain Farmers," T. Pauketat, Ph.D.

DIRECTIONS. This form is to be completed and submitted to Dr. Pauketat in Davenport 123 or 196 (lab) by March 16, 2007. Please submit these in person, or contact Dr. Pauketat at pauketat@uiuc.edu at the time of submission. Students will be notified of acceptance no later than March 31, 2007.

Name _____

Street Address _____

Spring Semester Phone _____ E-mail _____

Academic Status (circle): freshman sophomore junior senior grad.

Major Overall Grade Point Average _____

List Archaeology Courses Taken _____

What are your career plans and why take the field school? _____

List abilities/qualities you can offer the Project _____

VERY IMPORTANT: YOU MUST BE COVERED BY HEALTH INSURANCE PRIOR TO LEAVING FOR THE FIELD. What health insurance will cover you in the summer?

Identify any special considerations regarding your health, allergic conditions, and ability to engage in strenuous outdoor activity _____

Your signature here acknowledges your understanding that you will be an active participant in a special field course connected to a research project with goals above and beyond an ordinary on-campus college course.

Signature: _____

*Please note that all students must register for both courses (a total of 6 hours). Students will be responsible for their own food and for purchasing personal excavation supplies totaling between 50 and 75 dollars to be used in the field (to be explained later). There will be single non-refundable fee of $375 dollars payable to the University of Illinois. Additional information will be distributed following acceptance into the field school during two pre-field meetings.